

Grade Level Teams Homework Policies

Freshman –

If a student does not have a homework assignment on the due date they will be issued a homework detention to be served the following day during 4th bell lunch. Students can turn in their homework at the homework detention for full credit. If a student fails to turn in their homework at the conclusion of the lunch detention they will receive a zero. Students will be given written notification of the homework detention when it is assigned.

Sophomore –

If a student does not have the homework assignment on the due date they are given 2 days to turn it in in order to receive half credit. Anything after 2 days is a zero. Any repeat offenders can be assigned a lunch homework detention.

Junior –

If a student does not have the homework assignment on the due date, they have 24 hours to turn in the assignment for half credit. Anything after that is a zero.

Senior –

If a student does not have the homework assignment on the due date, they have until the end of the day to turn it in in order to receive half credit. Anything after that will be a zero.
